- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: JUAN PIZANO
CASE NUMBER: CR 10-4018-1-MWB

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant must participate in and successfully complete a program of testing and treatment for substance abuse.
2. The defendant will submit to a search of his person, residence, adjacent structures, office or vehicle, conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; he shall warn any other residents that the residence or vehicle may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. This condition may be invoked with or without the assistance of law enforcement, including the U.S. Marshals Service.
3. The defendant must participate in a mental health evaluation and/or treatment program. This may include participation in a sex offender treatment program or any such similar program offered in his approved district of residence. He must take all medications prescribed to him by a licensed psychiatrist or physician.
4. Any computer and/or electronic storage device the defendant owns or has access to shall be subject to random or periodic unannounced searches and monitoring by a United States Probation Officer. The search may include examinations of his computer(s) equipment, the retrieval and copying of all data, and any internal or external peripherals, and/or removal of such equipment for inspection. He must allow the U.S. Probation Office to install any hardware or software systems to monitor or filter his computer use. Prior to installation or any such hardware or software systems, he must allow the U.S. Probation Office to examine his computer and/or electronic storage device.
5. The defendant is prohibited from operating or using photographic equipment, a computer, or any electronic storage device to view or produce any form of pornography or child erotica.
6. The defendant must not use the Internet to view any form of pornography or child erotica via the World Wide Web, a commercial gateway, an Internet Service Provider, Internet Relay Chat channels, or any Internet Protocol address.
7. The defendant must remain in compliance with all sex offender registration and public notification requirements in accordance with the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006. He must meet with an appropriate official from either the Bureau of Prisons or the U.S. Probation Office who must explain to him all of his registration requirements. He must read and sign the Offender Notice and Acknowledgment of Duty to Register as a Sex Offender form.
8. Immediately following release from imprisonment, you must reside in a Residential Reentry Center for a period of up to 180 days. This placement must be in the community corrections component with work release privileges. While a resident of the Residential Reentry Center, you must abide by all rules and regulations of the facility. You must report to the Residential Reentry Center at a time and date to be determined by the Bureau of Prisons, the Residential Reentry Center, and the U.S. Probation Office.

Upon a finding of a violation of supervision, I understand the Court may: (1) revoke supervision; (2) extend the term of supervision; and/or (3) modify the condition(s) of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.
